Prayer of Confession (unison)

God of our ancestors, we confess our attempts to play God as we manage things for our advantage. We rely on our own wit and wisdom instead of seeking spiritual depths. We imagine that our hungers can be satisfied by bread alone. Forgive us, God, for the chasms we create, cutting us off from sisters and brothers and from you. Save us from ourselves, we pray. Amen.

NEXT Church National Gathering. Trinity members and friends are invited to participate in this year's NEXT Church National Gathering, March 5–7, 2021, online. NEXT Church seeks to build relationships, promote church vitality, inspire leaders, and challenge the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) with timely, relevant, and theologically sound discussion and worship. There's no charge for this year's all-online event, but you must register individually at <https://nextchurch.net> (where you can also learn more about the National Gathering and the work of NEXT Church). You'll also have a chance to learn more at a Wednesday Night Live Zoom orientation, preview, and "pep rally," on March 3, 2021, 7:00 p.m.

FRIENDS IN CHRIST rides again! In memory of one of Trinity's good friends, Joe Gernoske, Trinity's men's group "Friends in Christ" resumes meetings on Wednesdays at 10:30 via Zoom (link available on the Trinity website calendar).

LENTEN BIBLE PASSAGES ON FACEBOOK. Each morning during Lent. Daily postings will consist of three simple elements—a scripture passage, a brief prayer, and an image—that we hope will help you focus on your walk with God during this holy season. You're invited to participate whether you're a regular Facebook user or not. Facebook.com/trinitypresnc.

WRITING FOR RESILIENCE Each week during Lent, participants will respond to various kinds of writing prompts, spend a few minutes writing, and then have time for reflection and optional sharing. The only supplies needed are writing supplies and Zoom access. The purpose is not to critique our writing but to invite the Holy Spirit to move in and through our words. The six-week series will be offered at two times, all available through the online calendar links: Sunday mornings, 9:30-10:30 a.m., beginning Feb. 21, and Tuesday nights, 7:45-8:45 pm, beginning Feb. 23. For more information, contact Molly Garnett damonasa@aol.com

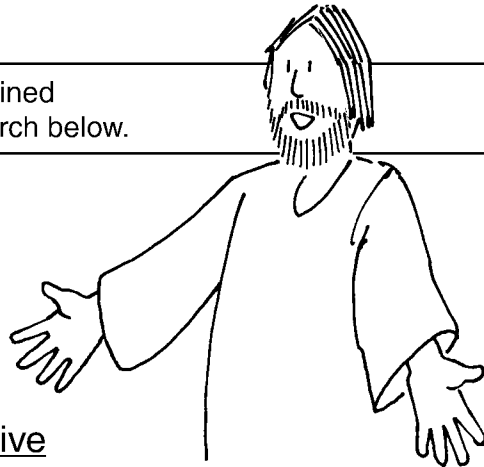

NEW BOOK STUDY BEGINNING THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 18 - COME AND JOIN US - Since the killing of George Floyd last summer and the ensuing protests and upheaval, a group of us (mostly Trinity members) have been discussing books related to Black Lives Matter and the Christian response. We meet for an hour on Thursday mornings from 11 to 12, and have developed a safe place for difficult discussions. We will be beginning a new book on Thursday, February 18, and would like to invite more people to join us. We will be reading White Rage: The Unspoken Truth of Our Racial Divide by Carol Anderson. If you or someone you know would like to be a part of this discussion, the Zoom meet is accessed by going to www.trinitypresnc.org/Calendar and scrolling down to the date. Click on the link and we will welcome all comers. For more information, or to be placed on our group email, contact Kathy Madigan at cardigank@aol.com or Norie Sanchez at noriequilts@gmail.com
